City Matters.
An interesting little child of Mr. J. W. Wain's died on Friday last from the effects of poison, having swallowed some of the berries of the Belladonna, or deadly nightshade. This plant grows quite abundantly in many of our gardens. The berries are about the size of the currant and when ripe, of a purple color. Parents cannot be too careful in guarding their little ones from this dangerous poison.

THE EARL OF DUBLIN, in a letter, announces that the Queen will visit the city of Milwaukee on the 15th inst. and that she will be accompanied by the Duke of Wellington. The Earl of Dublin is a member of the British nobility and is a close friend of the Queen. He is expected to arrive in Milwaukee on the 15th inst. and will remain in the city for several days. The Queen's visit is a great honor for the city and will be a great attraction for the people.
